INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

If you believe the law was inappropriately applied or the analysis used in reaching the decision was inconsistent with the information provided or with precedent decisions, you may file a motion to reconsider. Such a motion must state the reasons for reconsideration and be supported by any pertinent precedent decisions. Any motion to reconsider must be filed within 30 days of the decision that the motion seeks to reconsider, as required under 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(1)(i).

If you have new or additional information that you wish to have considered, you may file a motion to reopen. Such a motion must state the new facts to be proved at the reopened proceeding and be supported by affidavits or other documentary evidence. Any motion to reopen must be filed within 30 days of the decision that the motion seeks to reopen, except that failure to file before this period expires may be excused in the discretion of the Bureau of Citizenship and Immigration Services where it is demonstrated that the delay was reasonable and beyond the control of the applicant or petitioner. Id.

Any motion must be filed with the office that originally decided your case along with a fee of $110 as required under 8 C.F.R. § 103.7.

DISCUSSION: The employment-based visa petition was denied by the Director, California Service Center. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The petitioner is a corporation organized in December 1995 in the State of California. It is engaged in investment, marketing, import, export, and consulting services. It seeks to employ the beneficiary as its president and chief executive officer. Accordingly, it endeavors to classify the beneficiary as an employment-based immigrant pursuant to section 203(b)(1)(C) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the 8 U.S.C. Act), § 1153(b)(1)(C), as a multinational executive or manager. director determined that the petitioner had not established that the beneficiary had been or would be employed in a managerial or executive capacity for the United States petitioner.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. $ 103.3(a)(1)(v) states, in pertinent part:

An officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal.

The petitioner submitted a letter dated June 15, 2002 requesting an additional 180 days to submit a brief. The petitioner stated in the letter that the company was entering a rapid development stage and that the petitioner would participate in upcoming trade shows. To date, more than nine months after the petitioner's request for an additional 180 days to submit a brief and/or evidence, the Bureau has not received further evidence or a brief.

The petitioner's statements in the letter do not address the deficiencies in the record as detailed in the director's decision. Inasmuch as the petitioner does not identify specifically an erroneous conclusion of law or a statement of fact as a basis for the appeal, the regulations mandate the summary dismissal of the appeal.

ORDER: The appeal is summarily dismissed.
